3. Where the Company transmits messages through the Alabama Relay Center, the Company shall not be liable for errors in translating, transmitting, receiving or delivering messages by telephone, TDD or any other instrumentality over the facilities of the Company, connecting utilities or through the Alabama Relay Center, in the absence of gross negligence or willful misconduct.

S2.2 ESTABLISHMENT AND FURNISHING OF SERVICE

A. Application for Service

1. Applications for initial telephone service must be made and executed by the applicant or an authorized agent, on the Company's standard contract, or application form and submitted by the applicant at the Company's local business office. The Company may accept written or verbal orders for additional service when, in its judgment, such procedure is warranted.
2. The Company reserves the right to refuse service to any applicant who is found to be indebted to the Company for service previously furnished until satisfactory arrangements have been made for the payment of all such indebtedness. The Company may also refuse to furnish service to any applicant desiring to establish service for former subscribers of the Company, regardless of the listing request for such service, until satisfactory arrangements have been made for the payment of such indebtedness.

A. Application for Service (Cont'd)

3. The Company may refuse to furnish or may deny telephone service to any person, firm or corporation on whose premises is located telephone facilities which show evidence of tampering, manipulating, or use of any device whatsoever, for the purpose of obtaining service without payment of the charges.
4. When an application for service and facilities or requests for additions, rearrangements, relocations or modifications of service and equipment are canceled in whole or in part prior to completion of the work involved, the applicant is required to reimburse the Company for all expense incurred in handling the request before notice of cancellation is received. Such charge, however, is not to exceed all charges which would apply if the work involved in complying with the request had been completed.
5. When a subscriber requests a change in location of all or a part of the facilities covered by his application for service, or request additions, rearrangements or modifications of his existing service and equipment prior to completion of the work involved, he is required to pay the difference between the total costs and expenses which would have been incurred by the Company in completing the work involved and that which would have been incurred had the final location of the facilities been specified initially.
